

Utility Bill Scam

The City of Indianola advises customers about a nationwide utility bill scam that has reached the Des Moines metro area.

The scam claims President Barack Obama is providing credits or applying payments to utility bills. Customers are asked to provide their social security numbers to apply for the program. The scammers then give customers a phony bank routing number. Customers are told to provide the routing number to pay their utility bills or to receive a credit on their utility bills. If the routing number is entered during an online transaction, it may appear that the customer's bill has been paid (or that credit has been applied), but no government funds are applied to the customer's account, and the balance remains due. According to reports, the scammers are also using e-mail, text messages, and social media to reach customers.

If you think you have provided the City of Indianola with an incorrect bank routing number, please contact us at (515) 961-9410.

Aquasizing

Class Extended

The popularity of the early morning Aquasizing class offered at Veterans Memorial Aquatic Center has prompted officials to extend the class an extra week, and to open it up to everyone who is interested.

Instructors Amber Allen and her sister Afton Bradley will continue teaching the class, to the delight of class participants.

"I have fibromyalgia and wake up so stiff in the mornings," said Nancy Baethke. "I feel so much better after working out in the water. It really gives me a good start to the day."

Diana Ludovici agrees. "I keep telling them at the Senior Center that this class is great and they need to come try it with me."

Now the class will be open to all adults on a drop in basis on Tuesdays and Thursdays from 6:30 - 7:30 a.m. The cost will be $2 cash each time, payable at the pool. The class will meet from July 31 through at least August 16.

"There's just something special about being at the pool early in the morning. It's peaceful and refreshing, and Amber really gives us a great workout," said Kathy Kester. "She's already got ideas about more classes next year. We can't wait to see what she'll come up with."
