Utility Billing Alert

The City of Indianola and Indianola Municipal Utilities would like to remind customers that utility bills received in September will be for electric consumption used in July. Due to the excessive heat in July and the summer electric rates still in place, you can expect larger than normal bills. If you have concerns or questions, please contact the utility billing office at 515-961-9410.

Youth Horseback Ride

Wednesday, September 12th
3:30 pm - 6:15 pm • Ages 9 - 11 years

Let's head out to Camp Wesley Woods for a great after school adventure. The experienced wranglers will instruct you on proper riding techniques and how to handle a horse, then you'll head out for a trail ride. We'll finish the afternoon with a light supper around the campfire. Wear long pants and hard-soled shoes. Riding helmets provided and required. Parents must return signed waiver to the Parks & Recreation office by the registration deadline. Registration deadline is Wednesday, September 5th.

Basic Dog obedience

Sundays • September 9th - October 14th
2:30 - 3:30 pm • Dogs less than 30 lbs
4:00 - 5:00 pm • Dogs over 30 lbs
Indianola Off-Leash Dog Park

This course is designed to help you train your dog, age 4 months or older, to become an enjoyable, well-mannered companion. Instruction will include walking on a loose leash, and commands like sit, down, stay, and come when called, as well as proper socialization with other dogs and people. Positive reinforcement methods will be used (such as food rewards).

Instructor LaDonna Hutchcroft has over 20 years of experience showing and training dogs. Note: Due to a class structure which involves a high level of socialization in a group setting, the instructor requests no pit bulls please. Class participants must submit a copy of complete vaccination records and a signed Dog Training Waiver (available on the downloads page of our website) to the Parks & Rec office by September 4th. The first day of class is at the Indianola Activity Center and is for owners only; no dogs please. Registration deadline is Tuesday, September 4th.
