The City of Indianola is accepting applications for the position of

Director of Finance

The position is responsible for oversight and monitoring of the City's approximate $45 million budget and long range financial plan, financial analysis and projections and annual financial reporting. The successful candidate will also be able to manage all aspects of the City's finances including accounting for City and Utility funds using a common software system, investments and development of internal controls. The City is located just minutes from downtown Des Moines and is a dynamic, growing community in the Des Moines Metro region. The Indianola Municipal Utility, serving the community since 1890, provides the city with electric, water and network services.

Salary $85,000 +/- plus benefits.

The ideal candidate will have a solid understanding of municipal finance with 6-8 years of accounting, finance or related experience, a bachelors degree in accounting or related field; or a masters degree in finance, accounting or related field of study and 4-6 years of management experience. Any combination of experience and training which provides the necessary knowledge, skills and abilities will also be considered. The City of Indianola is an Equal Opportunity Employer.

Applications may be obtained at Indianola City Hall
110 N. 1st Street, Indianola, IA 50125
or at the city website
www.indianolaiowa.gov

Completed applications must be received or postmarked no later than June 28th, 2013.

STATUE INVITE

Come get your photo taken with the American Gothic-inspired statue that's coming to Simpson College – and meet Simpson's new president in the process.

Simpson College and the Iowa History Center are inviting the community to a reception for the “God Bless America” statue from 5 to 7 p.m., July 10th, in front of the Kent Campus Center (inside if it rains).

This is a chance to see the impressive, 25-foot statue, which is on loan at Simpson through the work of the Iowa History Center.

In addition, Jay Simmons, Simpson's new president, will be on hand to greet and meet you.

Refreshments will be served.
