Go! For Launch

Incoming 6th - 9th graders

Have you ever wanted to see a rocket launch up close? Well, now you can - and you can even build your own! In this week-long class, participants will build two of their own flyable rockets while they learn about how rockets fly and how to calculate the altitude their rocket reaches. On the last day of class, it's "GO for Launch!" as we will fly all our rockets from our own Mission Control Center. Instructor David Dubczak is a computer and technology teacher at the Middle School, and a space and rocketry enthusiast who has also spent time as an educator at the Smithsonian National Air and Space Museum.

Program# 5313 Min: 7/20
Days/Dates: Monday - Friday, June 26-30
Time: 9:00 am - Noon
Age: Students entering Grades 6-9 in the fall
Location: Indianola Middle School
Fee: $104 ($99)
Registration Deadline: Monday, June 19, or when full

The National Balloon Classic and National Balloon Museum in partnership with Indianola Parks & Recreation and the Indianola YMCA present

Flying High!

A Behind-the-Scenes Adventure into the World of Hot Air Ballooning

Introduce your son or daughter to the wonders of hot air ballooning at our day camps held during the 2017 National Balloon Classic in Indianola. Participants will learn the history of ballooning, the physics and science of how balloons operate, safety and weather issues, the regulations and requirements for becoming a pilot, and rules and contests for competitive flying. These camps offer a unique opportunity for hands-on activities and learning with licensed balloon pilots, experienced crew members, and staff from the National Balloon Museum.

Camp activities will take place at the Balloon Field from 9:00am-Noon each day. A visit to the balloon museum will also be included. Transportation will be provided from the balloon field to the YMCA midday for more fun balloon-themed and recreational activities in the afternoon. Parents can pick up their students at the YMCA at 5:00 pm or before. Participants need to bring a sack lunch each day and a swimming suit and towel. Each participant will receive a 2017 National Balloon Classic T-Shirt and two VIP passes to an evening at the National Balloon Classic.

Time: 9:00 am - 5:00 pm Min/Max: 7/15 Location: National Balloon Classic Field & Indianola YMCA
